ZENITH PLIER STAPLER COLLECTION

The ZENITH plier stapler has been a benchmark of excellence since its original inception by Italian inventor Aldo Balma in 1948.

He designed each stapler to be stylish and ultra-functional, with an ingenious anti-jamming mechanism. The ZENITH plier stapler has since received countless design awards and is now synonymous with quality Italian design.

The background of the entire page is a close-up photograph of several round, silver-colored metal tins of Coccoina glue. Each tin contains a white, creamy adhesive and has a small metal brush with light-colored bristles resting inside. The tins are arranged in a grid-like pattern, with some in sharp focus and others blurred in the background. A dark blue banner with white text is overlaid on the left side of the image.
